OF THE
CITY COUNCIL OF
GREAT SALT LAKE CITY.

AN ORDINANCE,

TO INCORPORATE GREAT SALT LAKE CITY.

Passed by the General Assembly of the State of Deseret, Jan. 9th, 1851.

- 4- Sec. 1. Be it ordained by the General Assembly of the State of Deseret: That all that district of country embraced in the following boundaries, to wit,—beginning at the south east corner of the Church Pasture, about half a mile north of the Hot Spring; thence west to the west bank of the Jordan river; thence south, up the west bank thereof, to a point in said bank, directly west from the south-west corner of the five acre lots, south of said city; thence east to the aforesaid south-west corner of said five acre lots, and along the south line thereof; thence east to the base of the mountains; thence directly north to a point directly east of the south-east corner of the Church Pasture; thence west to the place of beginning; including the present surveys of said City, shall be known and designated as Great Salt Lake City; and the inhabitants thereof, are hereby constituted a body corporate and politic, by the name aforesaid, and shall have perpetual succession, and may have, and use a common seal, which they may change and alter at pleasure.

Sec. 2. The inhabitants of said City, by the name and style aforesaid, shall have power to sue and be sued; to plead and be impleaded; defend and be defended; in all courts of law and equity; and in all actions whatsoever, to purchase, receive, and hold property, real and personal, in said City; to purchase, receive, and hold real property beyond the City, for burying grounds, or other public purposes, for the use of the inhabitants of said City; to sell, lease, convey, or dispose of property, real and personal, for the benefit of said City; to improve and protect such property, and to do all other things in relation thereto, as natural persons.

Sec. 3. There shall be a City Council, to consist of a Mayor, four Aldermen, and nine Counselors; who shall have the qualifications of electors of said City, and shall be chosen by the qualified voters thereof, and shall hold their offices for two years, and until their successors shall be elected and qualified. The City Council shall judge of the qualifications, elections, and returns of their own members, and a majority of them shall form a quorum to do business; but a smaller number may adjourn from day to day, and compel the attendance of absent members, under such penalties as may be prescribed by ordinance.

Sec. 4. The Mayor, Aldermen, and Counselors, before entering upon the duties of their offices, shall take and subscribe an oath or affirmation, that they will support the Constitution of the United States, and of this State; and that they will well and truly perform the duties of their offices, to the best of their skill and abilities.

Sec. 5. On the first Monday of March next, and every two years thereafter on said day, an election shall be held for the election of one Mayor, four Aldermen, and nine Counselors; and at the first election under this ordinance, three Judges shall be chosen, viva voce, by the electors present. The said Judges shall choose two Clerks; and the Judges and Clerks, before entering upon their duties, shall take and subscribe an oath or affirmation, such as is now required by law to be taken by Judges and Clerks of other elections; and at all subsequent elections, the necessary number of Judges and Clerks shall be appointed by the City Council. At the first election so held, the polls shall be opened at nine o'clock a. m., and closed at six o'clock p. m. At the close of the polls, the votes shall be counted, and a statement thereof proclaimed at the front door of the house at which said election shall be held; and the Clerks shall leave with each person elected, or at his usual place of residence, within five days after the election, a written notice of his election, and each person so notified, shall within ten days after the election, take the oath or affirmation herein before mentioned; a certificate of which oath shall be deposited with the Recorder, whose appointment is hereinafter provided for, and be by him preserved. And all subsequent elections shall be held, conducted, and returns thereof made, as may be provided for by ordinance of the City Council.

Sec. 6. All free white male inhabitants of the age of eighteen years who are entitled to vote for State officers, and who shall have been actual residents of said City, sixty days next preceding said election, shall be entitled to vote for City officers.

Sec. 7. The City Council shall have authority to levy and collect taxes for City purposes, upon all taxable property, real and personal, within the limits of the City, not exceeding one half per cent per annum, upon the assessed value thereof; and may enforce the payment of the same in any manner to be provided by ordinance, not repugnant to the Constitution of the United States, or of this State.

Sec. 8. The City Council shall have power to appoint a Recorder, Treasurer, Assessor and Collector; Marshal and Supervisor of Streets. They shall also have the power to appoint all such other officers, by ordinance, as may be necessary; define the duties of all City officers, and remove them from office at pleasure.

Sec. 9. The City Council shall have power to require of all officers appointed in pursuance of this ordinance, bonds with penalty and security, for the faithful performance of their respective duties, such as may be deemed expedient; and also to require all officers appointed as aforesaid, to take an oath for the faithful performance of the duties of their respective offices.

Sec. 10. The City Council shall have power and authority to make, ordain, establish, and execute all such ordinances, not repugnant to the Constitution of the United States, or of this State, as they may deem necessary for the peace, benefit, good order, regulation, convenience, and cleanliness of said City;—for the protection of property therein, from destruction by fire or otherwise, and for the health and happiness thereof. They shall have power to fill all vacancies that may happen by death, resignation, or removal, in any of the offices herein made elective; to fix and establish all the fees of the officers of said corporation, not herein established; to impose such fines not exceeding one hundred dollars for each offence, as they may deem just, for refusing to accept of any office in or under the corporation, or for misconduct therein; to divide the City into wards, and specify the boundaries thereof, and create additional wards; to add to the number of Aldermen and Counselors, and apportion them among the several wards, as may be just, and most conducive to the interest of the City.

Sec. 11. To establish, support, and regulate common schools; to borrow money on the credit of the City,—provided that no sum or sums of money be borrowed on a greater interest than six per cent per annum,—nor shall the interest on the aggregate of all the sums borrowed, and outstanding, ever exceed one half of the City revenue, arising from taxes assessed on real estate within this corporation.

Sec. 12. To make regulations to prevent the introduction of contagious diseases into the City; to make quarantine laws for that purpose, and enforce the same.

Sec. 13. To appropriate and provide for the payment of the expenses and debts of the City.

Sec. 14. To establish hospitals, and make regulations for the government of the same; to make regulations to secure the general health of the inhabitants; to declare what shall be nuisances, and to prevent and remove the same.

Sec. 15. To provide the City with water; to dig wells; lay pump logs, and pipes, and erect pumps in the streets, for the extinguishment of fires, and convenience of the inhabitants.

Sec. 16. To open, alter, widen, extend, establish, grade, pave, or otherwise improve, and keep in repair, streets, avenues, lanes, and alleys; and to establish, erect and keep in repair aqueducts and bridges.

Sec. 17. To provide for the lighting of the streets, and erecting lamp posts; to establish, support and regulate night watches; to erect market houses, establish markets and market places, and provide for the government and regulations thereof.

Sec. 18. To provide for erecting all needful buildings for the use of the City; and for enclosing, improving, and regulating all public grounds belonging to the City.

Sec. 19. To license, tax, and regulate auctioneers, merchants, and retailers, groceries and taverns, and ordinaries; hawkers, peddlers, brokers, pawn-brokers, and money-changers.

Sec. 20. To license, tax and regulate hacking, carriages, wagons, carts and drays; and fix the rates to be charged for the carriage of persons, and for wagonage, cartage and drayage of property; as also to license and regulate porters, and fix the rates of portorage.

Sec. 21. To license, tax, and regulate theatricals, and other exhibitions, shows and amusements.

Sec. 22. To tax, restrain, prohibit, and suppress tippling houses, dram shops, gaming houses, bawdy, and other disorderly houses.

Sec. 23. To provide for the prevention and extinguishment of fires; to regulate the fixing of chimneys, and the flues thereof, and stove pipes, and to organize and establish fire companies.

Sec. 24. To regulate the storage of gunpowder, tar, pitch, rosin, and other combustible materials.

Sec. 25. To regulate and order parapet walls, and other partition fences.

Sec. 26. To establish standard weights and measures, and regulate the weights and measures to be used in the City, in all other cases not provided for by law.

Sec. 27. To provide for the inspection and measuring of lumber, and other building materials; and for the measurement of all kinds of mechanical work.

Sec. 28. To provide for the inspection and weighing of hay, lime, and stone coal; and measuring of charcoal, firewood, and other fuel, to be sold or used within the City.

Sec. 29. To provide for and regulate the inspection of tobacco, and of beef, pork, flour, meal; also beer, and whiskey, brandy, and all other spirituous or fermented liquors.

Sec. 30. To regulate the weight, quality, and price of bread, sold and used in the City.

Sec. 31. To provide for taking the enumeration of the inhabitants of the City.

Sec. 32. To fix the compensation of all City officers; and regulate the fees of jurors, witnesses, and others, for services rendered, under this, or any City ordinance.

Sec. 33. The City Council shall have exclusive power within the City by ordinance, to license, regulate, suppress, or restrain billiard tables, and from one to twenty pin alleys; and every other description of gaming or gambling.

Sec. 34. The City Council shall have exclusive power within the City by ordinance, to license, regulate, or restrain, the keeping of ferries, and toll bridges; to regulate the police of the City; to impose fines, forfeitures, and penalties, for the breach of any ordinance; and provide for the recovery of such fines and forfeitures; and the enforcement of such penalties, and to pass such ordinances as may be necessary and proper for carrying into effect and execution, the powers specified in this ordinance, provided such ordinances are not repugnant to the Constitution of the United States, or of this State.

Sec. 35. All ordinances passed by the City Council, shall, within one month after they shall have been passed, be published in some newspaper, printed in said City, or certified copies thereof, be posted up in three of the most public places in the City.

Sec. 36. All ordinances of the City may be proven by the seal of the corporation; and when printed or published in book or pamphlet form, purporting to be printed or published by the authority of the corporation; the same shall be received in evidence in all courts, or places, without further proof.

Sec. 37. The Mayor and Aldermen, shall be conservators of the peace within the limits of the City; and shall have all the powers of Justices of the Peace therein, both in civil and criminal cases, arising under the laws of the State. They shall, as Justices of the Peace, within the limits of said City, perform the same duties, be governed by the same laws, give the same bonds and securities, as other Justices of the Peace, and be commissioned as Justices of the Peace, in and for said City by the Governor.

Sec. 38. The Mayor and Aldermen shall have exclusive jurisdiction in all cases, arising under the ordinances of the corporation, and shall issue such process as may be necessary to carry said ordinances into execution and effect. Appeals may be had from any decision or judgment of said Mayor or Aldermen, arising under the ordinances of said City, to the Municipal Court under such regulations, as may be presented by ordinance; which Court shall be composed of the Mayor, as Chief Justice, and the Aldermen as Associate Justices; and from the final judgment of the Municipal Court, to the Probate Court of Great Salt Lake County, in the same manner as appeals are taken from Justices of the Peace; provided the parties litigant shall have a right to a trial by a jury of twelve men, in all cases before the Municipal Court. The Municipal Court shall have power to grant writs of Habeas Corpus, and try the same, in all cases arising under the ordinances of the City Council.

Sec. 39. The Municipal Court may sit on the first Monday of every month, and the City Council, at such times and places, as may be prescribed by City ordinance; special meetings of which may at any time be called by the Mayor or any two Aldermen.

Sec. 40. All process issued by the Mayor, Aldermen, or Municipal Court, shall be directed to the Marshal; and in the execution thereof, he shall be governed by the same laws, as are or may be prescribed for the direction and compensation of constables in similar cases. The Marshal shall also perform such other duties as may be required of him under the ordinances of said City; and shall be the principal ministerial officer.

Sec. 41. It shall be the duty of the Recorder to make and keep accurate records of all ordinances, made by the City Council, and of all their proceedings in their corporate capacity; which record shall at all times be open to the inspection of the electors of said City, and shall perform all other duties, as may be required of him by the ordinances of the City Council, and shall serve as Clerk of the Municipal Court.

Sec. 42. When it shall be necessary to take private property for opening, widening, or altering any public street, lane, avenue, or alley, the corporation shall make a just compensation therefor, to the person whose property is so taken; and if the amount of such compensation cannot be agreed upon, the Mayor shall cause the same to be ascertained by a jury of six disinterested men, who shall be inhabitants of the City.

Sec. 43. All jurors empannelled to enquire into the amount of benefits or damages, that shall happen to the owners of property so proposed to be taken, shall first be sworn to that effect, and shall return to the Mayor their inquest in writing, signed by each juror.

Sec. 44. In case the Mayor shall, at any time, be guilty of a palpable omission of duty, or shall wilfully and corruptly be guilty of oppression, mal-conduct, or partiality, in the discharge of the duties of his office; he shall be liable to indictment in the Probate Court of Great Salt County; and on conviction, he shall be liable to fine and imprisonment; and the court shall have power on the recommend of the jury, to add to the judgment of the court, that he be removed from office.

Sec. 45. The City Council shall have power to provide for the punishment of offenders and vagrants, by imprisonment in the county or city jail, or by compelling them to labor upon the streets, or other public works, until the same shall be fully paid; in all cases where such offenders or vagrants shall fail or refuse to pay the fines and forfeitures which may be recovered against them.

Sec. 46. The inhabitants of Great Salt Lake City, shall, from and after the next ensuing two years, from the first Monday of April next, be exempt from working on any road or roads, beyond the limits of said city. But all taxes devoted to road purposes, shall, from and after said term of two years, be collected and expended by, and under the direction of the supervisors of streets, within the limit of said city.

Sec. 47. The Mayor, Aldermen, and Counselors of said city shall, in the first instance, be appointed by the Governor and Legislature of said State of Deseret; and shall hold their office until superseded by the first election.

Sec. 48. This ordinance is hereby declared to be a public ordinance, and shall be in force from and after its passage.

Approved Jan. 19th, 1851.

AN ORDINANCE,

REGULATING AUCTIONEERS AND COMMISSION MERCHANTS, IN GREAT SALT LAKE CITY.

Sec. 1. Be it ordained by the City Council of G. S. L. City, that no person or persons shall, after the posting up of this Act, sell or expose for sale by way of vendue or auction, any property within the limits of this city, unless such person or persons shall reside within the limits of this city, and first obtain a license for the term of one year for this purpose, from the city council of said city; for which such person or persons shall pay to the corporation the sum of one per cent on all goods sold by him or them, and give bonds to the Mayor and city council, with good securities, in the sum of one thousand dollars, for the honest and due performance of all duties required by law.

Sec. 2. Be it further ordained, that if any person or persons shall be found selling or disposing of any property, within the limits of G. S. L. City, by way of vendue or auction, without having obtained such license, and giving such securities as aforesaid; such person or persons, upon conviction thereof, shall be liable to pay a fine of not less than five, nor more than twenty-five dollars for every such offence.

Sec. 3. Be it further ordained, that the Auctioneer or Auctioneers, licensed as aforesaid, shall receive all articles, which he or they shall be required to sell at auction, giving his or their receipt for the same, if required; and within ten days after any sale, shall deliver a fair account of the same, and pay the amount thereof to the person or persons entitled thereto; deducting therefrom fees and commissions hereafter allowed; that is to say, on the account of the sale of the property, a commission not exceeding twenty per cent. on all property sold.

Sec. 4. It shall be the duty of every Auctioneer, licensed as aforesaid, to pay over the sum of one per cent. to the corporation, on all goods sold by him, once in three months; and in accounting for such duties, it shall be incumbent on every Auctioneer, to make his returns under oath or affirmation, and exhibit to the Treasurer his books of sales, when required so to do by said Treasurer; and should any such Auctioneer neglect or refuse to comply with the duties imposed on him, he shall forfeit his license, and be liable to pay a fine of not less than five, nor more than fifty dollars.

Sec. 5. If any goods or property shall be consigned to any Auctioneer or Auctioneers of this city, licensed, as commission merchants, to be sold on commission at private sale, he or they may sell the same at private sale, and receive such fees or per cent. as may be agreed on by the parties, by paying the said one per cent. to the City Corporation, on all proceeds arising from said sales, except such articles as are manufactured within the limits of this state.

Sec. 6. Nothing in this ordinance shall be so construed as to prohibit any sheriff, constable, or other officer, whose duty shall require him to levy on any property, and sell the same at public auction on the execution or judgment of any of the Courts of this State.

Sec. 7. This ordinance to take effect, and be in force from and after its passage.

AN ORDINANCE

IN RELATION TO ASSESSING AND COLLECTING CITY TAXES.

Sec. 1. Be it ordained by the City Council of G. S. L. City, that the city Marshal shall ex officio be city assessor and collector. And it shall be his duty to assess all taxable property within the limits of the city, at its fair cash value, and make returns to the City Council of the same between the first of April and the first of June 1854. And said assessor shall, thereafter assess and make returns to the City Council between the first of January and the first of April annually.

Sec. 2. The first assessment on goods brought into this city for sale, shall be made by adding to the amount of the invoice, the average per cent realized, or intended to be. And goods thus assessed, but remaining unsold at the time of the next assessment, shall be assessed like other taxable property; and goods brought in by transient traders shall be assessed, and the tax collected when they are exposed for sale.

Immediately after the receipt of any lot of goods intended for sale, the owner or agent shall furnish the Assessor and Collector with the correct amount of the invoice, a copy of which he shall file in the office of the City Recorder.

Sec. 3. In making such assessments, the Assessor shall provide himself with suitable books, properly ruled for such purposes, and shall make his tax list in alphabetical order; he also, shall pursue that course in his official duties, which in his judgment, will enable him to complete the assessment in the most uniform manner, and in the shortest time. To aid him therein, he may, when necessary, leave with any person, or at his residence, a copy of the blank form of the Tax List, with the name of the person required to fill the same, and a reasonable date thereon, at or before which it must be returned, written on the back thereof; and any person furnished with said list, must comply with the requirement.

Sec. 4. It shall be the duty of the Assessor and Collector to return the assessment list on, or before the first Saturday in June of 1854, and thereafter on the second Saturday of April in each year.

Sec. 5. It shall be the duty of the City Council to sit on the first Saturday in June of 1854, and thereafter, on the second Saturday of April in each year, and continue to sit from day to day; to hear complaints (if any) and adjust the same, and to determine the Assessor and Collector's compensation.

Sec. 6. Immediately after the adjournment of the Council, the Recorder shall write upon the head of the Tax List, the rate per cent, for city and road purposes for that year; and set each persons amount of city and road tax in the proper columns opposite his name; he shall also furnish each of the Bishops or Supervisors of the several wards of the city with a correct copy of the list, with the amount of tax for road purposes affixed to each name in their respective wards, and file the original list with the office records.

Sec. 7. The Assessor and Collector shall proceed to collect the amount of tax assessed for city purposes, and pay the amount collected into the city treasury, quarterly, or oftener if required, and take receipts for all payments, and shall on, or before the first day of December make a full report to, and settlement of all accounts with the Auditor.

Sec. 8. It shall be the duty of the Auditor to keep an account with the Assessor and Collector; debiting him with the amount of tax for city purposes, and crediting him with the amount of tax paid in, and the compensation allowed him for his services.

Sec. 9. In case any person neglects or refuses to pay his tax when required, the assessor and collector is authorized and empowered to take, and sell in manner most advantageous for the owner, enough taxable property belonging to the delinquent, to pay his tax, and cost of collection, and if said property is to be sold at public sale, he shall give a reasonable notice of the time, place and kind of property.

Sec. 10. The Assessor and Collector is required and empowered to collect taxes at the rate of the previous year from any person he presumes will remove from the city before the regular time for collection, and to assess any person or property, accidentally omitted during the time for assessments, and must report his doings under this section, in the same manner as though done within the regular time.

Sec. 11. Any person refusing or neglecting to comply with this ordinance, shall be liable to a fine of not less than ten, nor more than one hundred dollars.

Sec. 12. This ordinance to be in force, from, and after its passage.

Passed, March 24, 1854.

AN ORDINANCE,

RELATING TO COMMON SCHOOLS IN GREAT SALT LAKE CITY.

Sec. 1. Be it ordained by the City Council of G. S. L. City, that said city be, and is hereby divided into school districts, corresponding in number and boundary with the several bishops' wards.

Sec. 2. The bishops of the several school districts are hereby authorized and required to call a meeting of the members of their respective districts, on or before the first Saturday in June next, or as soon thereafter as practicable, at which meeting there shall be elected three Trustees for each district, whose term of office shall be during the pleasure of the people; said Trustees may appoint their own Clerk; and they are hereby authorized and required to call meetings at their pleasure of all legal voters and tax payers in their districts, for the purpose of allowing the voters to determine the nature and extent of the improvements for school purposes, which shall be governed by the votes of the majority; and either of said Trustees are empowered to call a meeting for the purpose of filling any vacancy that may occur in their number by removal, or resignation.

Sec. 3. The Trustees shall have power to assess and collect a tax upon all taxable property, which shall not exceed three per cent. per annum, for the purpose of building and keeping in repair suitable school houses in their respective districts; and also, for fencing and all necessary outhouses. In case of the refusal of any person to pay the tax assessed upon being duly notified thereof, the Trustees have power to take and dispose of real and personal estate to pay said tax. They shall give ten days notice of the time and place of sale, by posting up notices in three public places in said district, and any conveyance made upon such sale shall be deemed valid.

Sec. 4. It shall be the duty of the Trustees to employ teachers and superintend the schools in their respective districts; to furnish fuel and all other things necessary for the convenience of the schools.

Sec. 5. The Trustees are hereby authorized and empowered to collect from each individual who may patronize said school or schools, their proportion due for fuel, according to the number of scholars sent.

Sec. 6. The aforesaid Trustees shall be required to give bonds and security of not less than five thousand dollars for the faithful performance of their duty, to be filed in the office of the City Recorder.

Sec. 7. The Trustees of the several districts shall make reports quarterly to the City Council, of the number of scholars who have attended school during the past quarter; the amount of improvements, buildings and repairs for said school, and the tax collected and expended thereon; and in case either of said Trustees fail to perform their official duties, the City Marshal is authorized and required to forthwith enter a complaint to the City Council against said Trustees.

Sec. 8. Be it further ordained, that there shall be a Board of Examination appointed by the City Council for the several districts of the City, consisting of three competent persons, whose duty it shall be, to hear and determine the qualifications of school teachers. All applicants of a good moral character, that are considered competent, shall receive a certificate to that effect, signed by the board.

AN ORDINANCE,

REGULATING THE MODE OF PROCEEDING IN CASES WHERE THE ORDINANCES OF THE CITY ARE VIOLATED.

Sec. 1. Be it ordained by the City Council of G. S. L. City, that when the Mayor or Alderman has information under oath, that a person has violated any ordinance of said city, the aforesaid Mayor or Alderman shall issue an order to the Marshal, requiring him to bring the offender before him.

Sec. 2. When a person accused of an offence is brought before the Mayor or Alderman, he shall determine whether such person shall be put upon trial, or be released.

Sec. 3. If it be determined that the accused be put upon trial, the court shall issue an order requiring the Marshal to summons all the witnesses required, provided neither party shall have more than three witnesses to prove any one fact; and shall forthwith, or at the earliest possible convenience, hear the case.

Sec. 4. At the time of trial, if any important witness be absent, the court may issue a compulsory order for his appearance and adjourn until such witness be present.

Sec. 5. If when the accusation is read, the accused confess he is guilty, the court may enquire into the amount of guilt and decide accordingly. If he plead not guilty, the evidence on the part of the accusation shall be heard, then that of the accused; after which, if either party can satisfy the court, that important evidence which he can procure is still wanting, his demand may be complied with. When all the evidence is heard, the accuser may make such applicable remarks as he shall deem proper, and also the accused, and the court shall render judgment as soon as practicable.

Sec. 6. Before the Municipal Court, if required by either party, the court shall issue an order requiring the Marshal to summons twelve judicious persons, or, a less number if agreed upon by the parties, to sit as jurors, who shall be residents of the city. The persons summoned for jurors may be objected to for cause, one by one, by either party alternately; if any are removed their place shall be filled, and when the number is complete, they shall be sworn to give a just verdict, and to have no communication with any but the court, or a fellow juror, upon the case before them, until they have agreed upon the verdict, which must be done with diligence, and may be given when three-fourths of their number concur.

Sec. 7. In all cases when judgment is rendered, the party in fault refusing or neglecting to comply, the court shall upon request, or of its own will, issue an order to the Marshal requiring him, to enforce the judgment; he shall execute the order without unnecessary delay, and make return of his proceeding as soon as possible.

Sec. 8. When property taken to satisfy a judgment is to be sold at auction, the officer shall give notice of time and place of sale, and a summary of the kind of property, allowing the intervention of a reasonable time before said sale.

Sec. 9. All courts shall have power to enforce their orders and punish by fine or imprisonment, or both, at the discretion of the court, and all fines shall be paid into the city treasury.

Sec. 10. An appeal from the decision of the Mayor or Alderman may be taken when the sum in question exceeds ten dollars, and from the Municipal Court for any sum exceeding twenty dollars, in either case bonds may be required and costs to be paid.

Sec. 11. In case no property can be found to satisfy a fine and costs that may be assessed against any person, the court may issue and compel him to labor upon the streets or some public works, or commit him to the city prison until the judgment and costs be paid, or he be otherwise discharged.

Sec. 12. This ordinance to be in force from and after its passage.

Passed Dec. 15, 1854.

AUDITOR'S REPORT

OF ACCOUNTS OF GREAT SALT LAKE CITY FOR 1854.

TO THE HONORABLE THE MAYOR AND MEMBERS OF THE CITY COUNCIL OF GREAT SALT LAKE CITY.

GENTLEMEN: I herewith submit my annual report of the fiscal operations of Great Salt Lake City for the past year, ending December 31, 1854. I have endeavored to obtain full reports from the bishops and supervisors; but as the spring appears to be the best season for the improvement of roads, and the expenditure of the road taxes, it would be impossible to obtain the timely information to make a full report of all disbursements, and the improvements consequent thereon. I shall therefore beg leave to reserve that portion of my report for a future occasion.

The Assessor's return list of property was made about the middle of June, from which I made out and furnished the assessor and collector a correct copy of city and road tax list; also the bishops and supervisors with a list of the road tax of their respective wards, which was completed by July 7, 1854, as follows:—

Total amount of property assessed	$367231.00
City tax at $\frac{1}{2}$ of one per cent	4493.16
Road tax	4329.26

The following is the account current from J. C. Little, Esq., assessor and collector:—
